

Messy Palms

Encouraging faith (Liverpool)

In 2012, Mothers' Union and Messy Church came together at Liverpool Cathedral for a celebration of Palm Sunday - Messy Palms!

250 people attended, children and adults enjoying crafts, activities, worship and a picnic. People could write graffiti, wondering what the people of Jerusalem thought about this king riding on a donkey and make Palm Sundaes with crushed biscuits and green jelly.

During the time of celebration, everyone was encouraged to join in by waving their banners and palm leaves.

For more information about this Messy Palms event, see www.liverpoolmothersunion.org.uk/latest-news/

For Messy Church, see www.messychurch.org.uk

For general guidelines about setting up and developing outreach initiatives, go to the members' section of the Mothers' Union website www.themothersunion.org